JESSE STREETS

Jesse Streets knew he was destined for a life in automobiles when he discovered a birthmark in shape of a '58 Edsel on his abdomen. Interestingly, the mark also resembled the face of beloved president Herbert Hoover, but due to his Canadian citizenship he chose the car route. Jesse lives and breathes cars (not the exhaust, of course) helping SUPER 7 winners with their exotic car buying decisions. "The choice between Corinthian leather and Peruvian nubuck can torment the unprepared car buyer, I'm here to help."
