

SURVIVING THE FIRST KISS

Kissing is a bit of an art form. And like art, there's no perfect way to go about it. Also like art, a lot of people suck at it. There are, however, a few general rules that can help you through the lip landmine.

1) DON'T BE TOO AGGRESSIVE. Establish that you're sorta "the gentle type," then you can both move on to the stuff you really wanted to do in the first place.

2) DON'T BE TOO PASSIVE. Lying there and doing nothing says, "I'm not into this." (Important: Keep this in mind for when you really aren't into it.)

3) DON'T SLOBBER. Dogs slobber. Komodo Dragons slobber. Anyway, our point is, it would probably be more attractive if you didn't do that.

It's always been survival of the fittest. Drink milk.
